

Psalm 119<sub>1</sub>

Lamedh ל (Your Word O LORD is Eternal)

<sup>D</sup> Your faith-ful-ness — con-tin-ues — through-out all — gen - e - ra - tions;

<sup>A</sup> You es-tab-lished the earth, and it en-dures.

<sup>A</sup> Your laws en - dure to this day, — for all things are Your ser-vants.

<sup>D</sup> If Your law had not been my de-light, — I would have per-ished — in my af-flict-ion.

<sup>D</sup> I will never for-get — Your pre-cepts, — for by them You have given life to me.

<sup>A</sup> Save me, for I belong to You, I am Yours;

<sup>A</sup> I have sought out Your pre-cepts, (which en - dure to this day).
